

WASHINGTON

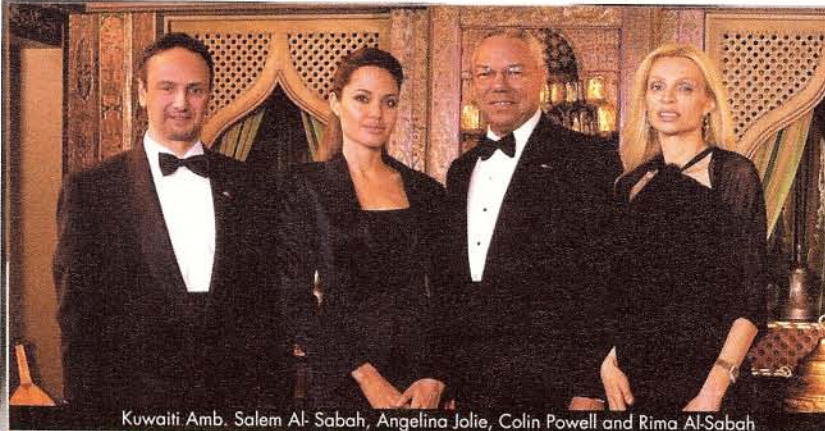

MAY 2005

13
THIRTEEN YEAR
ANNIVERSARY

Loft Living Hits D.C.
Keswick Hall at Monticello and parties, parties, parties!

Angelina Jolie and Colin Powell

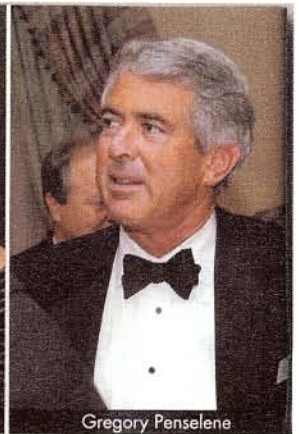

Kuwaiti Amb. Salem Al-Sabah, Angelina Jolie, Colin Powell and Rima Al-Sabah

Marvin and Terry Hamlich

Gregory Penselene

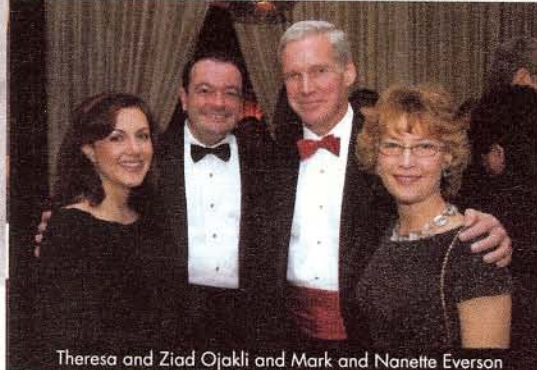

Paul Wolfowitz

EVENT Kuwait-America Foundation's Benefit for Iraqi Refugees

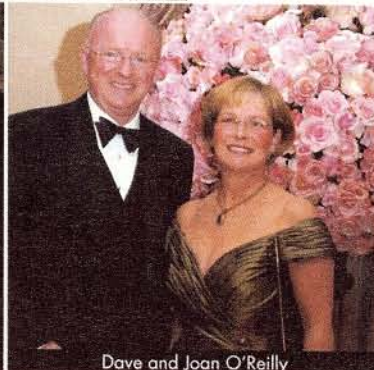

A Tribute to Friendship

Kuwaiti Ambassador Salem Al-Sabah and his wife, Rima, hosted the Kuwait-American Foundation benefit dinner, "A Tribute to Friendship," on March 9 for Iraqi refugees relief. There are 400,000 Iraqi refugees, mainly women and children, living in exile around the world. The benefit raised over $1 million, which will be used for the repatriation and resettlement of these refugees. The dinner honored former Secretary of State Colin Powell and UNHCR Goodwill Ambassador Angelina Jolie. CNN's Paula Zahn flew in from New York to emcee the event with Marvin Hamlich, who performed with the Children's Chorus of Washington. The underwriters of the intimate evening (of 144 guests) were ChevronTexaco and the Dow Chemical Company. Other corporate sponsors included Occidental, Boeing, Conoco-Phillips, General Motors, Kuwait Petroleum Corporation and Exxon Mobile. Among the VIPs attending were the Secretaries of Energy, Transportation and Housing and Urban Development; Supreme Court Justices Antonin Scalia and Anthony Kennedy; and Generals Richard Myer and Peter Pace

Photos by Vicki Bonhoeffer-Zaid Hammad

Theresa and Ziad Ojakli and Mark and Nanette Everson

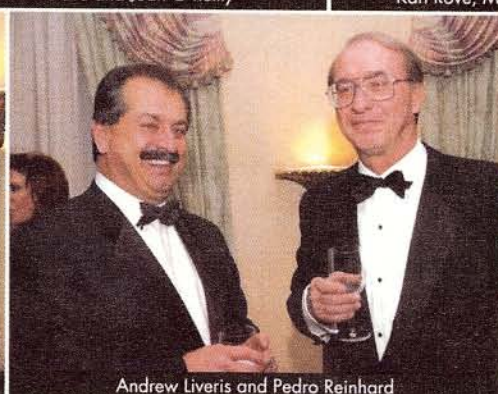

Dave and Joan O'Reilly

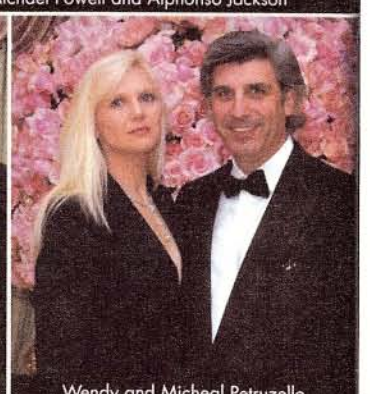

Karl Rove, Michael Powell and Alphonso Jackson

Marilyn Harris, Peggy Hudson and Lisa Barry

Andrew Liveris and Pedro Reinhard

Wendy and Micheal Petruzello