THE POWER TO transform

From HILLARY CLINTON and LEONARDO DICAPRIO to SALLY FIELD, DIANE VON FURSTENBURG, and all the groundbreaking women behind vital voices, Washington has been a buzz this spring with A-list arrivals, who know that a trip to the nation's capital is a must to bring change.

GLAMOUR FOR A CAUSE: Only 144 very select guests made the cut for this year's dinner, hosted on Earth Day by Kuwaiti Ambassador Salem Al-Sabah and his wife Rima (glamorous in a chiffon leopard print by Dior) to thank donors of $1.8 million to conservation projects in Brazil and Indonesia. THE CHOSEN: Obama Administration heavy-weights, major media personalities, and top corporate donors feasted on baked potato topped with caviar, lamb chops and a Clementine tart before honors were meted out to Secretary of State Hillary Rodham Clinton and actor Leonardo DiCaprio for their dedication to the cause of conservation. MAGIC MOMENT: Marvin Hamlisch's special tribute to "Hillary," sung to the tune of "Maria" from West Side Story, brought down the house.
